Why are they talking?

- to raise awareness about the missionary work of the Church and the role of lay missionaries, both at home and overseas.
- to thank the people of the Kildare & Leighlin Diocese for their support for this work over the years
- to offer an opportunity and preparation to anyone who feels called to volunteer their time, skills and talents
- to appeal for ongoing help both financially and above all through prayer
- there will be a collection in aid of their work.

CEMETERY MASS

RELATIONSHIPS

Accept others the way they are; you expect them to accept you as you are.

Don't take other people for granted, you don't like to be taken for granted.

Speak the truth from the start – you expect others to be truthful with you.

Respect other's opinions, you want others to respect yours.

Be reliable for doing what you say.

You are responsible for your own happiness; don't make others responsible.

Take time to listen to them – if you want them to listen to you.

Don't bring up the past – you hate it when others do that.

When things get heated, allow things to cool down.

Don't assign blame – we all hate to be blamed.

Look for solutions not evidence.

Act your age at all times; adult relationships work better with grown ups.

Let go of comparisons – we all hate to be compared.

Give "the relationship" a vote.

Respect boundaries.

Relationships are a two-way street.

THE COMFORT AND SWEETNESS OF PEACE

After the clouds, the sunshine,
After the winter, the spring,
After the shower, the rainbow
for life is a changeable thing;
After the night, the morning,
bidding all darkness cease,
After life's cares and sorrows,
The comfort and sweetness of peace.
