IN MEMORIAM

We remember in our prayers Baby Charlie Tracey, Courtown Bridge, our thoughts and prayers go out to his parents, Ciara & Darragh at this very sad time. We also pray for James Earls (RIP), brother-in-law of the late Noel Moran, whose remains were interred in St. Joseph's and also George Thorpe (RIP), husband of Josie, nee Sullivan, formerly Church St., who will be interred in St. Joseph's this week. May they rest in peace.

*Balance is not something you find,
it's something you create.*

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The family of the late Michael Reilly would like to thank family, friends, neighbours and all who helped in any way on the recent death of Michael; to all who attended Michael's wake and funeral; to Fr. John, Fr. George, Fr. Jackie & Fr. Brian; to Nancy (Sacristan Little Chapel) & Liz (Sacristan at St. Coca's); to Kilcock Choir and soloist Carmel Hamilton, organist Enrika and to Ryan's Undertakers for their professionalism and kindness; to all who gave mass cards and to all who donated to the Irish Cancer Society.

To the staff at Blanchardstown Hospital for their care and attention; to Michael's work colleagues at An Garda Síochána for the Guard of Honour, thank you all. The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass will be offered for your intentions.

IN GRATEFUL APPRECIATION

As we remember the 1st Anniversary of the death of Lena Downey, Kilbrook, Enfield, our family wish to thank all who helped and supported us while Lena was ill and over the last year. Particular thanks to Fr. John and Fr. George for their celebration of the funeral Masses and their subsequent support, to John & Declan O'Neill and their staff for their kind services at the time, to the members of Cappagh GAA for their assistance in traffic control and their guard of honour, to the members of the "Young at Heart" group for their support, to the many of our great neighbours and friends who helped out at that time and to all who attended the funeral or sent condolences. The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass is being offered for your intentions.
