Do not search me down among the marble headstones

Where rooks on November branches

Make gathering cry for the dying year

Do not look for me where summers leaves

Decay on waves of winter grass

Do not imagine me as you last saw me

Pale, bruised and empty of life

I am not here

But see that shaft of sunlight

Which spots the grey dark lake of late November

On the heather hillside of Donegal

Or listen to the thrush

Squeeze out the last notes of its sunny summer song

Or hear the laughter

I splashed in my sisters face On the sun drenched beach that summer before I left you

I go on playing not where winter withers

But where spring

Is eternal.

(John McCullagh)
