CEATHRAR LAOCHRA Ó CILL CHOCA 1919

Kilcock GAA Club will celebrate Kildare's All Ireland Senior Football win of 1919 and honour the four Kilcock players who were members of that team on Thursday night, 21st November, at 8pm in the GAA clubhouse.

The Kilcock players were James "Ginger" Moran, Christopher "Kit" Flynn, Joe O'Connor and George Magan. Relatives and friends are invited to attend and it is expected they will bring along medals and other memorabilia of that time.

A talk will be given on the All Ireland campaign along with pen pictures of these famous players. Everyone is invited to attend as we pay a fitting tribute to these outstanding players of that era.

Táimid ag súil le oíche mhórchéiliúradh.

IN MEMORIAM

We ask prayers for Mary Rickard (RIP), late of Longford, mother of Jean and grandmother to our server, Ailbhe, who died during the week. May she rest in peace.

IN NOVEMBER WE REMEMBER IN ST. COCA'S

Write your loved ones name who has passed and place on our Remembrance tree or in our Remembrance Book.

All will be remembered in our Masses in November.

Also, our Parish List of the Dead is available at the back of the Church.

"Gone, but not forgotten."

GRATEFUL THANKS

St. Joseph's Cemetery

Many thanks to all who attended Rosary and Blessing of Graves in our cemetery on Sun, 3rd Nov. Thanks to Breda, Helen, Carmel, Kay, Bernie and Kathleen for leading the rosary, to Aoife and Kilcock Scouts for providing the tent, Mongey's Communications for amplification, to Jimmy for the collection and to those who work to keep St. Joseph's looking so well. We thank Fr. Alex and friends from St. Paul's, Maynooth for leading us in prayer and blessing all the graves. The sum of €2,345 was collected and will go towards the upkeep of our Cemetery.

Newtown Cemetery

The Cemetery Committee would like to thank all who attended the Blessing of the Graves on Sun, 3rd Nov. and all who contributed to our collection for the upkeep of cemetery. The amount of €631.85 was raised. Thank you!

Cloncurry Cemetery

Cloncurry Cemetery Committee would like to thank everyone who attended the November prayers on Sunday last. A special thank you to our visiting priest, Fr. John, who blessed the graves and led us in the prayers. Thanks also to all who contributed to the collection for the upkeep of the cemetery, which amounted to €801.30. Thank you!

IN GRATEFUL APPRECIATION

The Farrell family, together with the Lynam family, would like to express our heartfelt thanks and appreciation to neighbours, friends, the Gardai and Emergency Services, and all who sympathised with and supported us and continue to do so as we grieve the loss of our beloved Emily.

Sincere thanks also to those who organised, participated in or supported the concert in tribute to Emily, especially Eimear and Claire Crehan, Mary Coughlan and the SUSO Gospel Choir. The support of Fr. John & Fr. George, Liz Byrne and so many others is very much appreciated and valued. The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass will be offered for all your intentions.

When our heart aches from loss and our mind seems to be adrift,

When loneliness engulfs our grieving with the fragile remnants of memory,

It can be helpful for us to remember we do not weep alone in our sorrow,

You hold us in your gentle embrace, comforting us with murmurs of love,

Your compassionate, caring presence gives us courage and hope to go on.

*Eternal rest grant unto them, whose earthly lives are past.
Perpetual light shine down on them; may they rest in peace at last.*

*Eternal life grant unto them, whose laughter now I've lost,
Whose presence and whose smiles I miss, but never mind the cost.*

Eternal joy grant unto them, whose sufferings now are through;

Their pain and illness finally gone, their minds and hearts renew.

*Eternal peace grant unto them, my friends and foes together;
Forgive them all their trespasses.
May they rest in peace forever.*
