13th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The Gospel tells us that Jesus healed people by touching them. He touched people in various ways: with his words, with his hands, and with his love. The Eucharist brings us very close to Jesus. And we too need his healing touch in our lives.

*Lord Jesus, you bring pardon and peace to sinners.
Lord, have mercy.
You bind up hearts that are broken.
Christ, have mercy.
You are the Good Shepherd, leading us to eternal life.
Lord, have mercy.*

Each of us has the capacity to heal.
A kind word can heal a wounded spirit;
a kind deed can heal a wounded heart.
But sometimes there is nothing we can do for the sufferer,
and nothing we can say either.
In that case, our only ministry is that of simple presence, like that of Mary at the foot of the cross.
Yet, just by being there, by standing alongside,
we save the sufferer from feeling abandoned,
and offer something very precious, namely, human comfort.
