TRINITY SUNDAY

Today, the feast of the Blessed Trinity, brings us face to face with the mystery of God. We can know certain things about God by looking at creation. But it is Jesus who reveals to us the mystery of God. Sometimes we may be so obsessed with God's creation that we forget about God himself. Let us reflect on that for a moment.

Lord Jesus, you reveal God to us as a Father who cares for his children.

Lord, have mercy.

Through the incarnation you have become a Brother to us.

Christ, have mercy.

Through your gift of the Spirit, the love of God has been poured into our hearts.

Lord, have mercy.

Nowadays, thanks to the security camera,
we are often being watched,
watched by a cold, dispassionate eye,
intent only on catching us in wrong-doing.
The feeling that someone is watching us
is not a pleasant feeling.
But the feeling that someone is watching over us
is a lovely feeling.
God is not watching us.
God is watching over us.
The conviction that God is watching over us
gives us comfort in times of sadness,
strength in time of weakness,
and hope in times of despair.
