I BELIEVE

I believe – that it isn’t always enough to be forgiven by others. Sometimes you have to learn to forgive yourself.

I believe – that even when you think you have no more to give, when a friend cries out to you – you will find the strength to help.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The family of the late Bridget Byrne, Courtown Road, would like to thank most sincerely Fr. George, Fr. Adriano and Liz for their guidance, help and organisation with prayers and funeral mass arrangements.

A special word of thanks to William Ryan & Sons, Undertakers, for the expert service they provided. To the Soloist, Bernadine Sheridan, the organist, servers and all involved in the beautiful mass.

Thanks also to everyone who attended Bridget’s reposing at Ryan’s Funeral Home, her funeral mass (in person or via live streaming) and Bridget’s burial. To all who sent messages of condolence, mass cards and any donations made to the requested charity, Pieta House.

Finally, a huge thank you for the support we received from the staff of Parke House, our relatives, neighbours, friends, work colleagues and the wider community. The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass will be offered for the intentions of all.

14th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

At times life can become very burdensome. But Jesus invites us to come to him with our burdens and promises to give us rest. Let us come to him now in a spirit of love and trust.

Lord Jesus, you are close to the broken-hearted.

Lord, have mercy.

You renew the strength of those who trust in you.

Christ, have mercy.

You give peace of soul to the humble and the gentle.

Lord, have mercy.

The Lord says to us, “Come to me, all you who are weary and carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest.”

Let us not be afraid then to come to the Lord.

Let us sit in his presence as in the shade of a tree.

Let us refresh ourselves here as at a running stream.

Here we will find rest. Here we will find peace.

And our yoke will become easy, and our burden light.
