15th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

We come to the Lord to receive from him. Here he forgives our sins, speaks his word to us, and nourishes us with the food of the Eucharist. And by bringing us together, he makes it possible for us to support one another in the journey of faith.

Let us ask the Lord's forgiveness for the wrong we have done and the good we have failed to do.

I confess to the almighty God

The Lord depended on the apostles.

Now he depends on us.

Lord, make us instruments of your healing power.

Where is hatred, let us sow love.

Where there is injury, pardon;

where there is doubt, faith;

where there is despair, hope;

where there is darkness, light;

and where there is sadness, joy

*And therefore if the head and the body are to be well,
you must begin by curing the soul;
that is the first and essential thing.*

*And the care of the soul, my dear youth,
has to be effected by the use of certain charms,
and these charms are fair words;
and by them temperance is implanted in the soul,
and where temperance comes and stays,
there health is speedily imparted,
not only to the head, but to the whole body.*

Socrates

The best remedy for those who are afraid, lonely or unhappy, is to go outside somewhere where they can be quiet, alone with the heavens, nature and God. As long as this exists, and it certainly always will, then there will be comfort for every sorrow, whatever the circumstances may be!
