When you look deeply into your anger, you will see that the person you call your enemy is also suffering.

As soon as you see that, the capacity for accepting and having compassion for them is there!

SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus came to the house of Martha & Mary. Martha got completely carried away by the details of hospitality, but Mary sat at his feet and listened to him. During this mass, we have an opportunity to do what Mary did, namely, spend some time in the presence of the Lord. Let us enliven our faith in his presence among us.

Lord Jesus, your presence calms our fears.

Lord, have mercy.

Your presence eases our anxieties.

Christ, have mercy.

Your presence helps us to focus our attention on the one thing necessary – to listen to your word.

Lord, have mercy.

Lord, I place myself in your presence.

After the strain and turmoil of the day,

*I rest quietly here, as a little boat,
which has been tossed by the waves
and buffeted by the wind, rests secure in a sheltered harbour.*

Here my projects lose their power over me.

A healing process begins.

*My fragmented self is re-assembled,
and I am made whole again.*

*In your presence, I experience my true worth,
which consists not in doing but in being.*

*I surrender myself into your hands,
I am at peace.*

*The world breaks everyone,
And afterward many are strong in the broken places.*
