Confusion is the first step towards wisdom.
Folly is thinking that you have all the answers!

MORNING PRAYER

*Lord Jesus, as I began this new day,
I seek your strength to face it challenges.
Guide my decisions, bless my efforts
and keep me steadfast in faith.
When I feel weak, remind me that your power is made perfect in my weakness.
Lead me on the right path
and help me to be a vessel of love to others.*

AMEN

EVENING PRAYER

*Lord, I thank you for the blessings of this day and for your loving care.
As I rest tonight, I ask for your peace to surround me and my loved ones.
Help us to trust in your protection and wake renewed,
ready to serve you
As I prepare for sleep, relieve the worries of my heart.
Grant me peace throughout the night,
and may you bring me safely to a new day.
In Jesus' name.
AMEN*

SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
THE FLESH OF THE WORD

Jesus is chosen by the Spirit to be lamb and servant; Paul is chosen to be an apostle. Each of us in Baptism is chosen – we are chosen to live a life of holiness, to share in God's life; a life for us of praise and worship, of witness and apostolicity. We hear in John's Gospel about the Lamb of God; we think about the Passover Lamb and of the Passover – the feast which marks the liberation of Israel.

To be set free is a wonderful experience. Reflect on how you experience freedom in Christ. From what have you been set free? For what have you been set free?

Lord Jesus, you were pierced for our faults.

Lord, have mercy.

You bore our sufferings and sorrows.

Christ, have mercy.

Through your wounds we are healed.

Lord, have mercy.

KILCOCK INTEGRATION GROUP

The above group facilitate Conversational English classes in Kilcock Library (W23 AD66) on Friday mornings from 10am – 12 noon. We welcome all old and new members who are eager to learn the basics in English language conversations which will allow for friendship and integration while respecting culture and introducing some Irish culture. All welcome.

Christian hope is like an anchor that grounds our hearts in the promise of the Lord Jesus.

Christian hope isn't escape but a courageous choice to love and give, even in suffering.

True hope isn't evasion, it's decision.

POWER OF THE CONFRATERNITY

St. Louis de Montfort relates: "When our prayers are united to others, its power is multiplied out of all proportions. When I say one rosary I get the benefit of one rosary, however, if I say the rosary with 30 people, I get the benefit of 30 rosaries, as do each of the 30 other people. The law of grace in prayer cannot be compared to the law of nature" Rosary confraternity will be promoted at all masses this weekend.
